S&F Audience Commission Award!

Our initiative, begun in 2011, is to raise enough funds to commission a new ensemble work by an Australian composer for a future S&F season. If you wish to become part of this wonderful development process, simply add an amount to your total in the space provided on the booking form and S&F guarantees to put all of this money towards the composer's fee. All supporters will have the option to be publicly acknowledged.

Making a Donation

S&F activities would not be possible without the support of our donors. These funds contribute enormously and give us all a giant morale boost! The Australia Business Arts Foundation (AbaF) enables you to make a fully tax deductible donation to S&F. The donation form can be found at www.selbyandfriends.com.au/donations and posted directly to AbaF for a receipt. www.abaf.org.au/giving/acf/donors

The 2012 Selby & Friends Season has an exciting new look and feel. With an ensemble cast that includes many of Australia's most exciting and highly respected instrumentalists, the season showcases their stunning musical and communicative talents whilst presenting a magical variety of chamber ensembles from duos to quartets. We will share with you our commitment to our craft and the enthusiasm with which we all approach our unique world of ensemble music. S&F is proud to present this season of superb quality and variety to suit all tastes.

I am privileged to introduce my 'friends' for 2012, all renowned soloists who are famous for their love of chamber music. Violinists Sophie Rowell and Natsuko Yoshimoto, without doubt amongst our finest string players, are joined by British virtuoso Elizabeth Layton, now resident in Adelaide. Brilliant clarinetist Cathy McCorkill returns with superb cellist Julian Smiles. Master craftsman Li-Wei Qin also returns to S&F after five years and I welcome the multi award-winning New York-based cellist Clancy Newman and young Australian violist Glen Donnelly.

All in all it is a truly vivid and fascinating exploration of ensemble music amid a galaxy of musical stars with whom to enjoy it. I hope you will join us.
